2017 Summer Youth Programs

Vintage Camp ~ Grades 3-8 ~ July 10, 11, 13

Join us for a three-day, fun-filled vintage crafts/skills camp on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, July 10, 11, and 13. Students will have the option of participating in one morning and one afternoon session.

MORNING OPTIONS

AM-1 Playing with Poetry by Erin Makela

You will choose your own theme and create a collection of original poems on pages you design yourself.

AM-2 Counted Cross Stitch with Sarah Darling

Students will pick a beginner counted cross stitch kit and learn basic stitches and back stitch to outline designs.

AM-3 Crocheting for Beginners with Paula Stock

Students will learn how to do a slip-knot loop with yarn and then work on rows of stitches to create a small project.

AM-4 Photography with Gail Holinka

You will learn how to use a camera in this digital photography workshop. If time allows, we will explore Photoshop and mat your best photo. Camera provided, but you are welcome to bring your own.

LIMIT 10 STUDENTS PER SESSION
Please indicate your class choices when registering.

AFTERNOON OPTIONS

PM-1 Crafting Character with Erin Makela

We will explore a character that you are interested in and through different writing activities work on a novel or story.

PM-2 Paper Crafting with Sarah Darling

Students will use basic paper products and craft supplies to make homemade cards, scrapbook pages, collages, and journals.

PM-3 Cooking with The Beach House

Learn new cooking skills! We will make salsa, taco seasoning, granola, and shop at "Farmer's Market" to create a fresh vegetable pasta salad.

PM-4 Calligraphy with Gail Holinka

Learn how to write like the ancient Chinese calligraphers and learn creative writing/poetry. Students will use watercolor techniques to create beautiful backgrounds for their poems.
