

Evaluating a Website with DUPED

Title of website: _____

URL: http://_____

| | | |
|---|--|--|
|  | Date published or last updated? Hint: Look at the bottom of the webpage for this. | |
|  | Url of website? What is the extension? .edu = educational .com = commercial .gov = government .biz = small business .net = network .org = organizational .info = credible resource .us = American website | |
|  | Purpose of site: Opinion of the author or facts? Does the information match what you want to find out about your topic? | |
|  | Ease of use? Are there photos, maps, charts or other diagrams to help you understand the information on the website? Do other links on the website work? Are the pop up ads selling you something? | |
|  | Designer, publisher, or author of website? Can you find an email address to contact them? Hint: Look in the “about us” or “info”. Hint: Can you find more information about your author through a search on the web? | |

The acronyms were taken from <http://www.schoollibrarymonthly.com/curriculum/Laramie2011-v28n3p53.html> but the chart along with questions was created by Lisa Spieker on 3/16/2015.